

Roberto Bagnoli grew up in Rome, where he was first introduced to folk music and dance, eventually taking part in several performances and teaching dance classes. He subsequently studied various forms of folk dance in workshops throughout Europe, Israel and North America. From 1995 to 2003, he performed as a dancer and choreographer with the Terra di Danza Dance Company and was involved in the production of Raggi di Luna Italiana (Italian dances), GiroGiroMondo (dances from around the world), Keltic Emotion (Celtic dances), Mazal Tov (Israeli dances), and Ethnos (international folk dances). He currently organizes two dance camps in Europe: Balkanot (Balkan and Israeli dance) and Camp Yofi (Israeli dance). Roberto has lectured and conducted workshops throughout Europe as well as on numerous occasions in North America, Taiwan, Hong Kong, Singapore and Japan. Roberto lives in Reggio Emilia in Northern Italy.

with

Roberto Bagnoli

Teaching International Dances

and

Marcie van Cleave

Teaching Czech and Slovak dances

September 15 - 17, 2017

at

SNPJ, Enon Valley, PA

Marcie van Cleave has been teaching and leading traditional dances in the Boston area and throughout New England since the mid-1980s. In recent years, her reputation as a teacher and caller has spread beyond New England, and she now regularly teaches at camps, events and festivals around the U.S. and in Europe – notably in the Czech Republic, where she has an annual engagement with the traditional Czech dance group Dvorana in Prague and has co-lead several folk arts-oriented tours of the country.

Marcie has extensive expertise in developing and running music and dance camps, including the Folk Arts Center's International Weekend and Folk Days at Pinewoods Camp, Pinewoods Labor Day Weekend, Pinewoods Cape Breton Weekend, Boston Harbor Scottish Fiddle School, and Oktoberfest Weekend in Fairlee, Vermont, to name just a few.

Marcie has been the Executive Director of the Folk Arts Center of New England since 1988.

What to Bring

Warm bedding (sleeping bag or linen and blankets for a double bed or bunk), towels, toiletries, a flashlight, warm sweater or jacket (we'll be dancing in the barn) and rain gear. Contributions of wine and desserts to share for the Saturday night party will be greatly appreciated.
