

Erica has been an engineering linguist, a high school English teacher, a non-profit Chief Program Officer, and has taught Israeli dancing on five continents (so far!). A two-time Brandeis University graduate, Erica holds an MBA as well as a Masters in Jewish Professional Leadership and is a grateful Wexner Fellow/Davidson Scholar. She has been an Educator for the Foundation for Jewish Camp's Cornerstone Fellowship for many years, and is the Founding Director of Ma'agal, an initiative to improve Israeli dance education at schools and camps across the nation. Erica also works at UJA-Federation of NY, creating thoughtfully designed spaces where professionals learn together and grow as leaders. Erica lives in Brooklyn NY and eats a pint of ice cream every other day.

Erica Goldman

Israeli Dances

and

Andy Taylor

International Dances

September 18-20, 2026

SNPJ,

270 Martin Road

Enon Valley, PA 16120

Andy started International Folk dancing at a young age under the guidance of her parents, Marianne and Conny Taylor, cofounders of the Folk Arts Center of New England. Andy was exposed to many cultures through dance, song and stories. Her dream was to connect Social Anthropology and dance.

Recently Andy has had the gift of working with Mike Protenic. He is a folk dance teacher & performer of many years' experience. For the past 20 years, he has researched the music of the Rusyn, Lemko, Hutzel and Boyko people of the Polish, Slovakian, Ukrainian, Hungarian, Romanian areas of Europe. Andy is honored that Mike asked her to teach these dances while he is unable. Andy looks forward to teaching these and many of the dances she has done throughout her life.
